“ Preserved Roses that will make your moments last forever”

Roseland has a unique process of preserving natural Ecuadorian roses maintaining their shape, colors and brightness. Treated professionally so that they last, you will notice they are soft almost as the fresh ones and they will keep the color without fading. Bringing up the evolution of flowers from a temporary ornament to iconic arrangements and decorations.

Cares

-  Do NOT water.
-  Do not expose to direct sunlight or dust.
-  No Refrigeration needed.
-  Avoid high temperature and high humidity.
-  Occasional de-dusting with soft brush.

How long do the roses normally last?

Our preserved roses are meant to last from one to five years, with the right care.

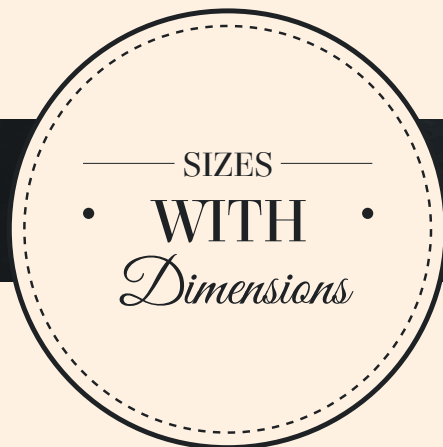

Preserved flowers are a perfect option for long-lasting, beautiful natural decoration. And here's where your creativity starts working.

Form floral arrangements, office and home decor, wedding bouquets, corsages, boutonnieres, frames, brunches & party accessories... you name it!
